

Valhalla: A Novel (Classic Reprint)

For me kind nature wakes her genial power,
Suckles each herb, and spreads out every flower;
Annual for me the grape, the rose renew
The juice nectarious, and the balmy dew;
For me, the mine a thousand treasures brings;
For me, health gushes from a thousand springs;
Seas roll to waft me, suns to light me rise;
My foot-stool earth, my canopy the skies.
But errs not nature from this gracious end,
From burning suns when livid deaths descend,
When earth-quakes swallow, or when tempests sweep
Towns to one grave, whole nations to the deep?
No (tis reply'd), the first almighty cause
Acts not by partial, but by general laws;
T'hexceptions few, some change since all began;
And what created perfect? why then man?
