

Just for You to Know

Do you know - or remember - what its like being a kid with too much going on in your life? Do you want to know - or do you remember - what life was like in an American town, B.B. (Before Beatles)? Heres the uplifting, heartbreaking story of smart-alecky, 12-year-old Carmen Cathcart, her big messy family, and her dreams. Just for you to know - and always remember. Especially true and tender School Library Journal I love this book and its people, who run and walk and stumble right off the pages into your head and heart. They are tough-tender Carmen Cathcart and her bizwang messed-up family... Theres heartbreak and joy here, and a full-circle ending that leaves you close to tears and cheering. Barbara Robinson author of The Best Christmas Pageant Ever This coming-of-age tale is wise, funny, and bittersweet. Carmen is a wonderful heroine, and her struggle to hold onto her family without sacrificing her dream of being an artist is one any reader will relish. Childrens Literature
